Raju is a cleverest boy in our class. Mohan sits besides me. I work hardly to get the first rank to my class. I am senior than Krishna.

13. Summarize the following passage :

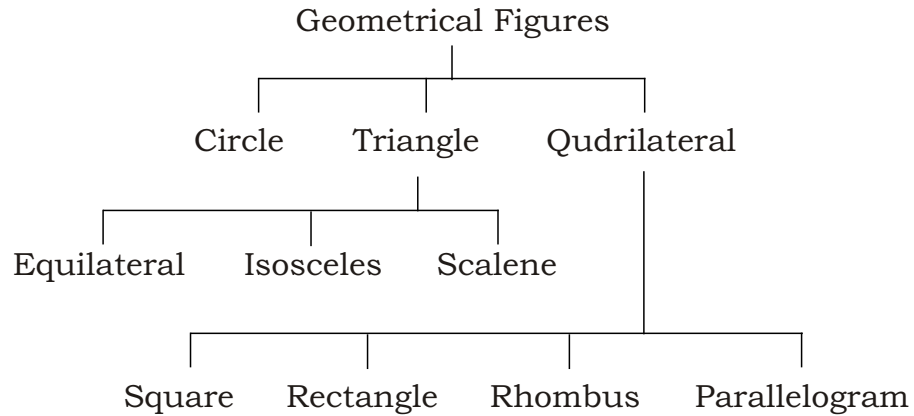

Today we have many kinds of glass. Some glass is spun into fine fibres like threads. Each fibre is much finer than the hair on your head. A pound of these fibres would reach round the earth! These fine fibres may be made into cloth for curtains. Or they may be used in walls of houses. The houses are cool in summer and warm in winter. Glass light-bulbs were first made by hand. When more and more people wanted light-bulbs, something had to be done. A glass-blower named Mike Owens made the first machine that could blow glass. Light-bulb the size of a seed of wheat. They use it to find things that get inside a person's body.

14. Read the following passage and write a summary of it :

Water is resource used by every human being on this planet that makes it the responsibility of every individual to do his bit to conserve water. Government agencies can never fight this battle alone. They can only take initiative and provide the necessary support. But ultimately conserving water has to be a people's programme. New strategies for generating awareness should be devised. The most important is to spread awareness among youngsters, as they have to face the maximum challenges in the coming future. Environment education has already been made compulsory in our education system. The need is to make it more comprehensible so that students can understand the practical aspects and challenges related to environment.

Grandfather bought Toto from a tonga-driver for the sum of five rupees. Grandfather decided he would add the little fellow to his private zoo. Toto was a pretty monkey. His bright eyes sparkled with mischief beneath deep-set eyebrows, and his teeth, which were pearly white, were very often displayed in a smile that frightened the life of elderly Anglo-Indian ladies. But his hands looked dried up. Yet his fingers were quick and wicked, and his tail, while adding to good looks also served as a third hand.

Questions :

- (a) Where did grandfather buy Toto?
- (b) What is Toto?
- (c) How much did grandfather pay for Toto?
- (d) What did grandfather decide to do the Toto?
- (e) Write synonym for the following word :

Mischief
